The Class of 1961 presents

THE CORINOMA

Annville-Cleona Jt. High School
Annville, Pennsylvania

THE CORINOMA

ANNVILLE-CLEONA HIGH SCHOOL
1961

FOREWORD

During our high school careers we have been concerned with the serious pursuit of scholastic achievement, while also enjoying athletic accomplishments, as well as many other activities. In addition we were nurtured in the ideals of loyalty, and integrity. We learned that the success of our lives was not dependent upon any one of these accomplishments but on a composite of all them.

It has been our aim to present in this volume of THE CORINOMA a picture of the activities, associations, and organizations which have contributed to our years at Annville-Cleona. We have endeavored to record those events of our high school days which will bring back fond memories in the years to come.

DEDICATION

We, the class of 1961, respectfully dedicate our yearbook to Mr. Peter P.
Bugda as an expression of our appreciation for the great understanding and patience
he has shown us, and for all the extra work he had done in helping our class make a success of everything we have attempted to do.

He has been much more than a teacher to us, he has also been a friend.

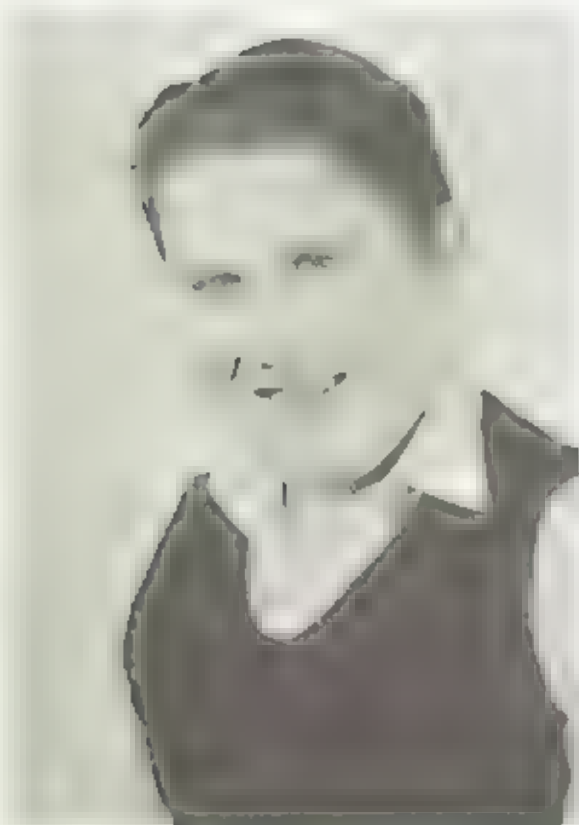

William Light, classmate and friend, who was called from our ranks on October 10, 1959 . . .

WILLIAM LIGHT
1943-1959

CHARLES DUPERT
1946-1961

In Memoriam

. . . and Charles Dupert, ninth grader, who lost his life in an automobile accident on March 26, 1961.

It all began seemingly ages ago, but actually it was little more than a decade.

We sat up like big boys and girls . . .

. . . but when we smiled, our baby teeth showed.

THIS IS OUR STORY

It hardly seems possible that in such a short time we've exchanged our little red wagons for little red "rods" . . .

. . . but here we are, grownup,
waving gaily as we prepare to drive away from our Alma Mater in a few days to find new areas of service,
new friends, new problems, new successes.

But before we go . . .

There's future -- Snowball Queen Tina, looking queenly already from front row center; there, too, is our editor-in-chief Jean (second from left, back row).

... permit us the opportunity to look again at just a few scenes from our Senior year ...

There was . . .

OUR NEW YORK TRIP . . .

. . . to start with the most recent memory.

We went to New York City by submarine--over 2000 in fact--for we earned the money for the trip by making and selling submarine sandwiches.

Corinne, Janet, and Beulah on the assembly line.

"Bear" Moyer packs . . .

. . . Jean checks an order . . .

. . and Judy adds up the profits.

Bright and early on May 21, we boarded the buses for New York City.

We arrived in New York City at 9:00 A.M. . . .

. . . and boarded a boat for a pleasant journey up the Hudson.

After a tour of West Point . . .

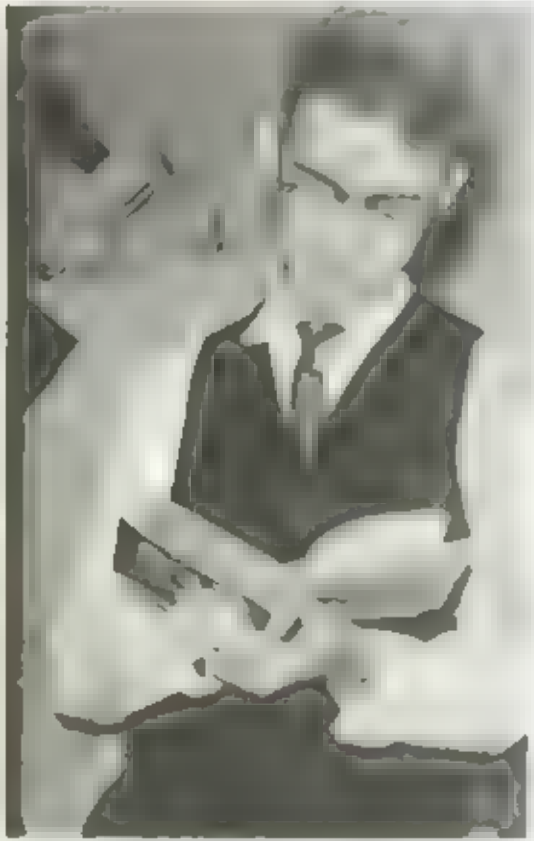

. . . we returned to New York and enjoyed a show at Radio City Music Hall.

At 3.00 A.M. we were back in Annville--tired but happy.

We Remember . . .

Joel Schneider, as Elwood P. Dowd, catches up on his reading while he awaits his cue in "Harvey."

THE

Student Supervising Principal James Honafius.

Student Administration Day, March 20, was a thrilling, and sometimes tiring day. We had never realized how long a fifty minute period could be until we became student teachers for the day

Here in action are student teachers

We were pleased that the band received new uniforms while we were still here to help use them...

UNIQUE, . . .

Here Ammon Balaster models a new uniform while he watches Mr. Lemon adjust the plume on Fran Peiffer's majorette outfit.

Student Principal Ammon Balaster receives a briefing from Principal Richard Gingrich on Student Administration Day.

Student Guidance Counselor Bruce Funk confers with Mr. Fake . . .

. . . while Eleanor Heagy seems to find the work of the Home and School Visitor just to her liking, as Mrs. Herr listens in.

Senior girls playing volleyball in gym . . .

Mr. Gehr's rainy weather equipment . . .

THE ROUTINE, . . .

. . . and third lunch period . . .

The "hill" . .

The entrance .

The crosswalk toward shops . . .

While to us 1960-61 will be remembered as "our year," to most people it will be the year of THE SNOW--a staggering 78 inches of it, exceeding by more than 20 inches any previous year of this century.

Here are a few scenes of Friday, January 20, one of our five no-school days . . .

Fast doorway at C corridor...

. . . AND SNOW

The crosswalk toward cafeteria . . .

The bus loading platform . . .

So here we are. We have reached . . .

. . . THE END OF A CHAPTER

. . . in our lives.

. . . Mentally . .

. . . Vocationally . . .

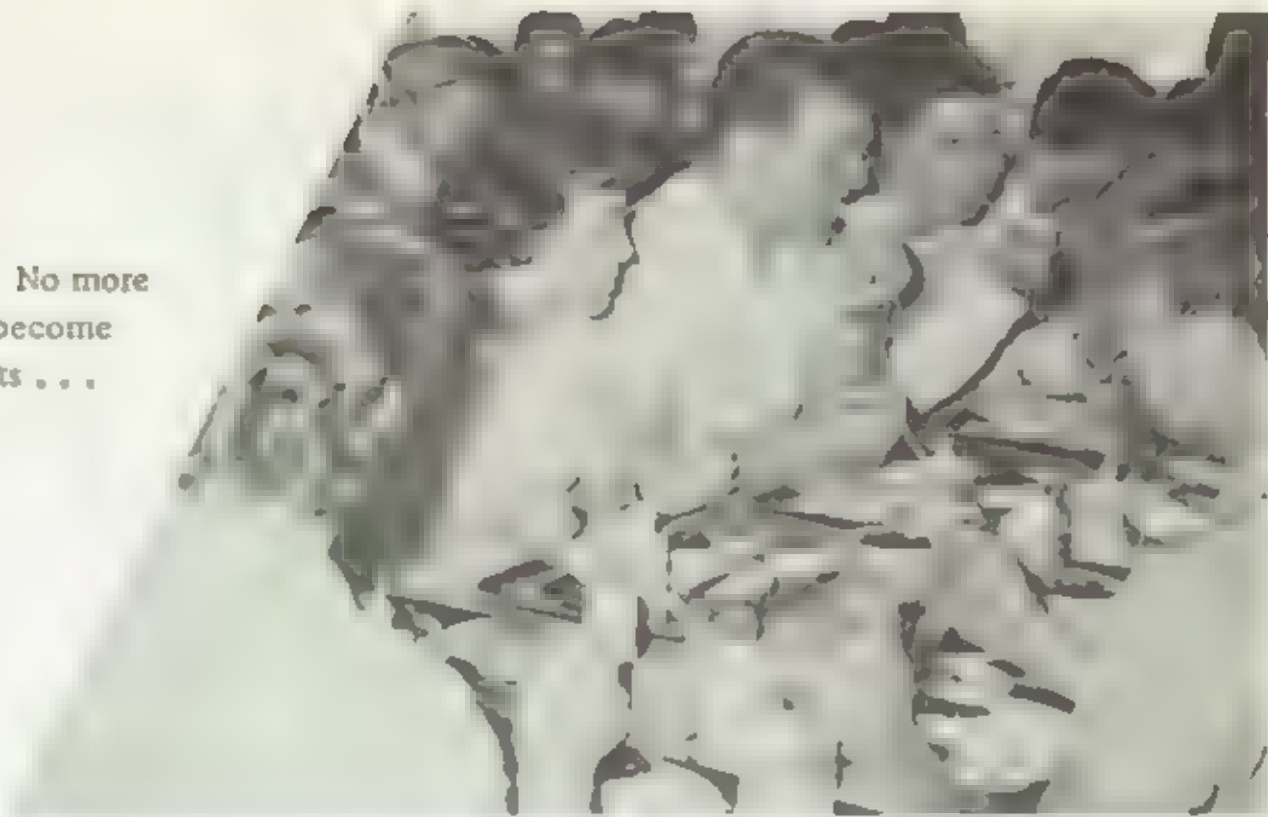

. . . Vocally . .

. . . Socially . . .

Now we are grown up. No more kid stuff for us. We have become dignified, responsible adults . . .

. . . Physically . . .

. . . Emotionally . . .

. . . And . . .

. . . Oops!!

(So what did you expect in twelve years-- perfection??)

SR. CLASS OFFICERS

The job of these four people pictured above was not an easy one. They spent long, extra hours for the success of the class as a whole.

Someone said of our president one time, "Bruce we appreciate everything you have done for our class. Maybe someone could have done as well as you but certainly no one could have done better." He did a marvelous job, but he couldn't have carried it out without the help of the other officers.

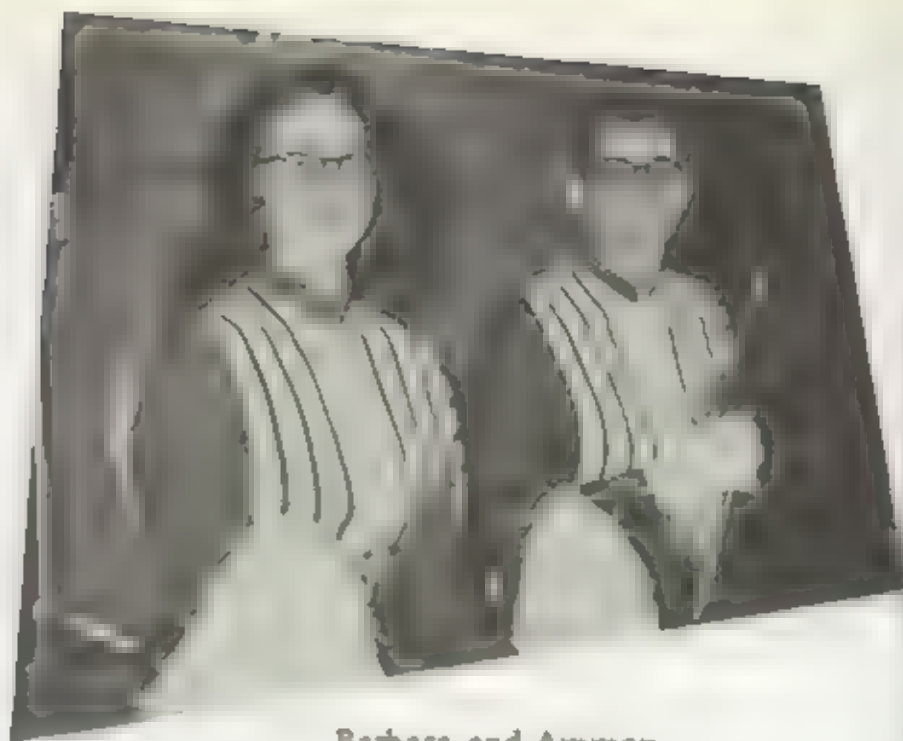

Jean did a splendid job at recording the finances for our class. We know the hardships she must have endured.

The secretarial reports were extremely good, thanks to the efforts on Dianne's part. Ken, as vice-president, also did his share of work for the class.

Thanks to all four of you. We really appreciate all the work you did for us.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The goal of the Student Council is to develop a sense of responsibility and self-government among the students, to promote the best interests of the school, and to consider requests and suggestions for the betterment of the school system.

Each senior high class is represented by five of its members elected annually by the student body and faculty.

The Council has conducted many projects benefiting the school, the students, and the community. In addition to their routine activities, such as the maintenance of the Flag Squad, and the Lost and Found Department, the supervision of the Parking Lot, and the planning of the Senior High Assembly programs, they have also sponsored Field Day, Student Administration Day, dances after the basketball games, and a bonfire.

SNOWBALL COURT

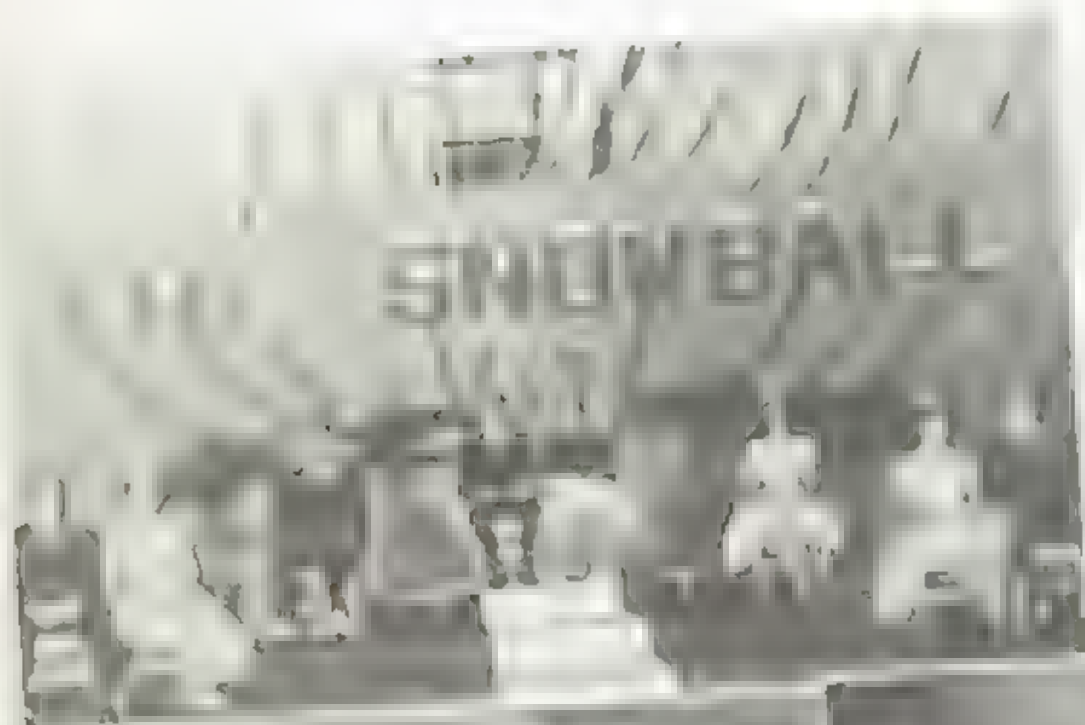

CENTER Ammon Balaster (king), Christine Alonzo (queen). FRONT Judy Miller, Ann Bow, Sue Ann Foltz, Ann Hains. BACK Donald Blauen, James Honatius, Carol Bowman (princess), Robert Morris (prince), David Wentling, Glenn Worcester.

The Snowball, sponsored each year by the Student Council, is one of the gala highlights of the year. Lighthearted senior high students dance and socialize in the gym, which has been tastefully decorated for the occasion.

Presiding over the festivities is a court selected by vote of the senior high school students.

Sue Kreamer, vice-president

Dianne Heagy, secretary
Jean Kinney, treasurer

The National Honor Society endeavors to develop the qualities of character, scholarship, leadership and service in its members and the student body. All members must maintain a "B" academic average, display leadership ability, be of high character, and have the unanimous approval of the faculty.

The Society has performed such worthwhile services as the maintenance of the Calendar of Events board, the establishment of a guide service for visitors to our school, and the arrangement of the Christmas decorations. In addition, they conducted an assembly program to induct new members and made several educational field trips.

Jerry changes bulletin board as Marilyn and George look on.

Tackling still another problem, Jean Kinney and Bob Ludwig are being aided by Mr. Martin.

YEARBOOK STAFF

The Yearbook staff is chosen by a Faculty Committee composed of our yearbook adviser, the principal, and our class advisors. The staff of nine members has worked together many hours to produce what it hopes will be a valuable permanent record of our school days at Annville-Cleona.

Jack Sutcliffe and Dale Hains, our business managers, take care of the day's receipts. Dale counts the money while Jack records the total.

The Hi-Y Club is an organization of senior high school boys devoted to the advancement of character and the promotion of worthwhile projects.

During the year they have carried forward a series of teen talks dealing with vital topics. Guest speakers, including local ministers and Lebanon Valley College students, have participated. The club also supported the March of Dimes by taking charge of coin containers for that purpose in local places of business. As in past years, they have served the school by conducting a coat checking service at public functions.

VARSITY BASKETBALL

Annvile-Cleona's Little Dutchmen again emerged as Lebanon County Champions with an undefeated league record and a season record of 23 victories and 2 losses. Their defeats were received at the hands of Kutztown, district Class B champions, and West Reading, state Class C champions.

This year's Little Dutchmen, by advancing to the district finals, progressed farther in the state play-offs than any previous team in our history.

Coach Etchberger and student managers George Holz, Bill Young, and Bill Gingrich happily examine our team's season record . . .

ALMA MATER

Formed in Annville High

For surpassing wealth unspoken
Sealed by friendship's tie.

High school life at best is passing Gliding swiftly by

Our love for Annville High.

Chorus:

Alma Mater, Alma Mater
Deep graven on each heart,
Shall be found unwavering true
When we from life shall part.
